

The Commissione Nazionale per le Società e la Borsa (Consob):

- has suspended, as a precautionary measure, the offer to the Italian public concerning financial investments carried out without the necessary authorisations by the company Cryp Trade Capital through the website <https://cryp.trade> for a period of 90 days;
- has prohibited the offer to the Italian public concerning financial investment contracts named “Buy to rent” carried out without the necessary authorisations, including through the website www.alessiocavalieri.it (resolution n. 20109 of September 13, 2017). The offer was previously suspended for a period of 90 days, as a precautionary measure, with resolution n.20040 of 21st June 2017 (see “Consob Informa” n.24/2017).

The Commissione Nazionale per le Società e la Borsa (Consob) also reports that the sole proprietorship Opzione Finanza of Antonio Vaccaro, to which the website www.opzionefinanza.com refers, is not authorised to provide investment services and activities in Italy by any means.