Five strategic ambitions

The following ambitions serve as a guide for our ongoing work and long-term digitalisation management

We will conduct data-driven and risk-based supervision

We will have flexible IT systems

We will give supervised institutions effective collaboration and reporting tools

We will increase the digital competence of all employees

We will manage our data in a way that supports streamlining and digitalisation